This concert this evening given by the Guildford Philharmonic Choir, conducted by Vernon Handley and Kenneth Lank, is in aid of the South West Surrey Breast Screening Project.

The target is £1,000. Guildford Ladies Circle has raised £600 of this at previous functions and from donations received from other local women's groups. The money is required towards the film and radiographic cost of a further two Breast Screening Sessions per week at Buryfields Clinic.

The purpose of the Breast Screening Project is to explore means by which the maximum number of Breast Cancers can be detected in a very early stage and how this service may be implemented in the current Health Service situation.
