

COME SING &

David Fanshawe's AFRICAN SANCTUS

Vivace Chorus

30th January 2010
Registration 10 to 10.30am
Singing starts 10.30am
Normandy Village Hall

Book early to avoid disappointment*

If you have sung David Fanshawe's African Sanctus before you will already know what a powerful work it is. Combining highly original music from the composer with tapes of African tribes and musicians creates a unique masterpiece. If you have not sung the piece before then you are in for a huge treat as we explore some of Fanshawe's vibrant and moving musical reaction to (and sing alongside) music recorded by him in Egypt, the Sudan, Uganda and Kenya. By way of contrast, we will also sing a couple of choral arrangements of spirituals made by the jazz composer Christopher Norton. It promises to be a thrilling day's singing.

Requirements to join the day are a love of singing and choral music, and £20! What you will receive in return is the hire of the scores, tea and/or coffee, homemade soup and a ploughman's, the company of others who enjoy singing and a day of music led by our Music Director, Jeremy Backhouse.

 Last date for receipt of applications 15th January but please note, only a limited number of tickets are available.*
