

& CONCERTS FIREWORKS Extravaganza

GUILDFORD
PHILHARMONIC

SHALFORD PARK

near Guildford

Sunday 16th July 1995

Gates open at 5.30pm

Concerts and Fireworks Extravaganza

Shalford Park, Guildford • Sunday 16th July 1995

The Guildford Festival is staging a Grand Finale of popular music to this year's Festival with two concerts for the price of one, celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Guildford Philharmonic and the end of World War 2.

The grounds will be open from 5.30pm. Seating is not provided so bring along a garden chair or a rug and relax and enjoy a picnic before the concert.

6.30pm Concert by Guildford Philharmonic Choir conducted by Jeremy Backhouse

Music by Mendelssohn, Barber, Gorecki, Tippett's five Spirituals, Londonderry Air,
A Nightingale sang in Berkeley Square and Keep the home-fires burning

8.00pm Concert by Guildford Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Anthony In programme includes:

Overture: Light Cavalry	Suppé	Gold & Silver Waltz	Lehar
Dambusters March	Coates	Spitfire Prelude & Fugue	Walton
Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana ..	Mascagni	633 Squadron	Goodwin
Pomp & Circumstance No.1 ("Land of Hope and Glory")			Elgar

Fireworks

- Safety regulations forbid the use of barbecues.
- Although the programme may be modified in the interests of safety and comfort if the weather is bad, the concert will not be cancelled.
- Tickets cannot be exchanged, replaced if lost, nor money refunded.

Tickets £11

(£6 concession for Philharmonic Society members & Subscribers, children under the age of 16 and retired persons over 60).

Box office 01483 444334 Tourist Information Centre, 14 Tunsgate, Guildford
01483 444555 Civic Hall, London Road, Guildford

Postal & Credit Card bookings

Name Address

Postcode Telephone No.

Tickets Concession tickets

Either enclose a cheque for £.....

Or debit my credit card

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Expiry date Signature

Make cheques payable to Guildford Borough Council