

Russian Spectacular

Saturday 22nd May 2004 at 7:30pm
Guildford Cathedral

PROKOFIEV

Alexander Nevsky

RACHMANINOV

Piano Concerto No. 3
in D minor

BORODIN

Polovtsian Dances

Forest Philharmonic Orchestra

Jeremy Backhouse - Conductor

Jeremy Filsell - Piano

Theresa Shaw - Mezzo Soprano

Guildford Philharmonic Choir

Tickets are available from Guildford Tourist Information Tunsgate 01483 444334 £18, £15 & £10 Student Concessions £5
25% off dinner at the Old Orleans Restaurant after the concert

Financially assisted by Guildford Borough Council

Guildford Philharmonic Choir

Presents

A Russian Spectacular

Guildford Philharmonic Choir
The Forest Philharmonic Orchestra
Conducted by Jeremy Backhouse

Saturday 22 May 2004
At 7:30
Guildford Cathedral

Borodin - Polovtsian Dances

Prokofiev - Alexander Nevksy

Theresa Shaw - Mezzo-soprano

Rachmaninov - Piano Concerto No. 3 in D minor

Jeremy Filsell - Piano soloist

Tonight two Russian Princes come to life: Prince Igor in Borodin's dazzling Polovtsian Dances and the 13th-century warrior Prince Alexander Nevsky who is dramatically brought to life by Prokofiev. The spectacular cantata was fashioned from his 1938 soundtrack to the epic Eisenstein film, commissioned by Stalin himself. We encounter Crusaders, the uprising Russian people, the violent "Battle on the Ice", the wastelands of "The Field of the Dead" and finally Nevsky's glorious triumph.

Following his stunning performance of Rachmaninov's 2nd Piano Concerto in 2001, Jeremy Filsell, the accompanist of the GPC, returns to enthral us with Rachmaninov's mighty 3rd Piano Concerto.

Tickets from Guildford Tourist Office, Tunsgate

Tel. 01483 444334

£18.00, £15.00 and £10.00

Concessions £5.00 for students and ES40s.

guildfordphilharmonicchoir.org.uk

Interval drinks available - place your order when you arrive.

Dine at the Old Orleans restaurant after the concert with 25% off!

(Voucher in the programme)