COME & SING & BAROQUE

Vivace Chorus

22nd January 2011

Booking opens 1st October
Apply early to avoid disappointment*

www.VivaceChorus.org

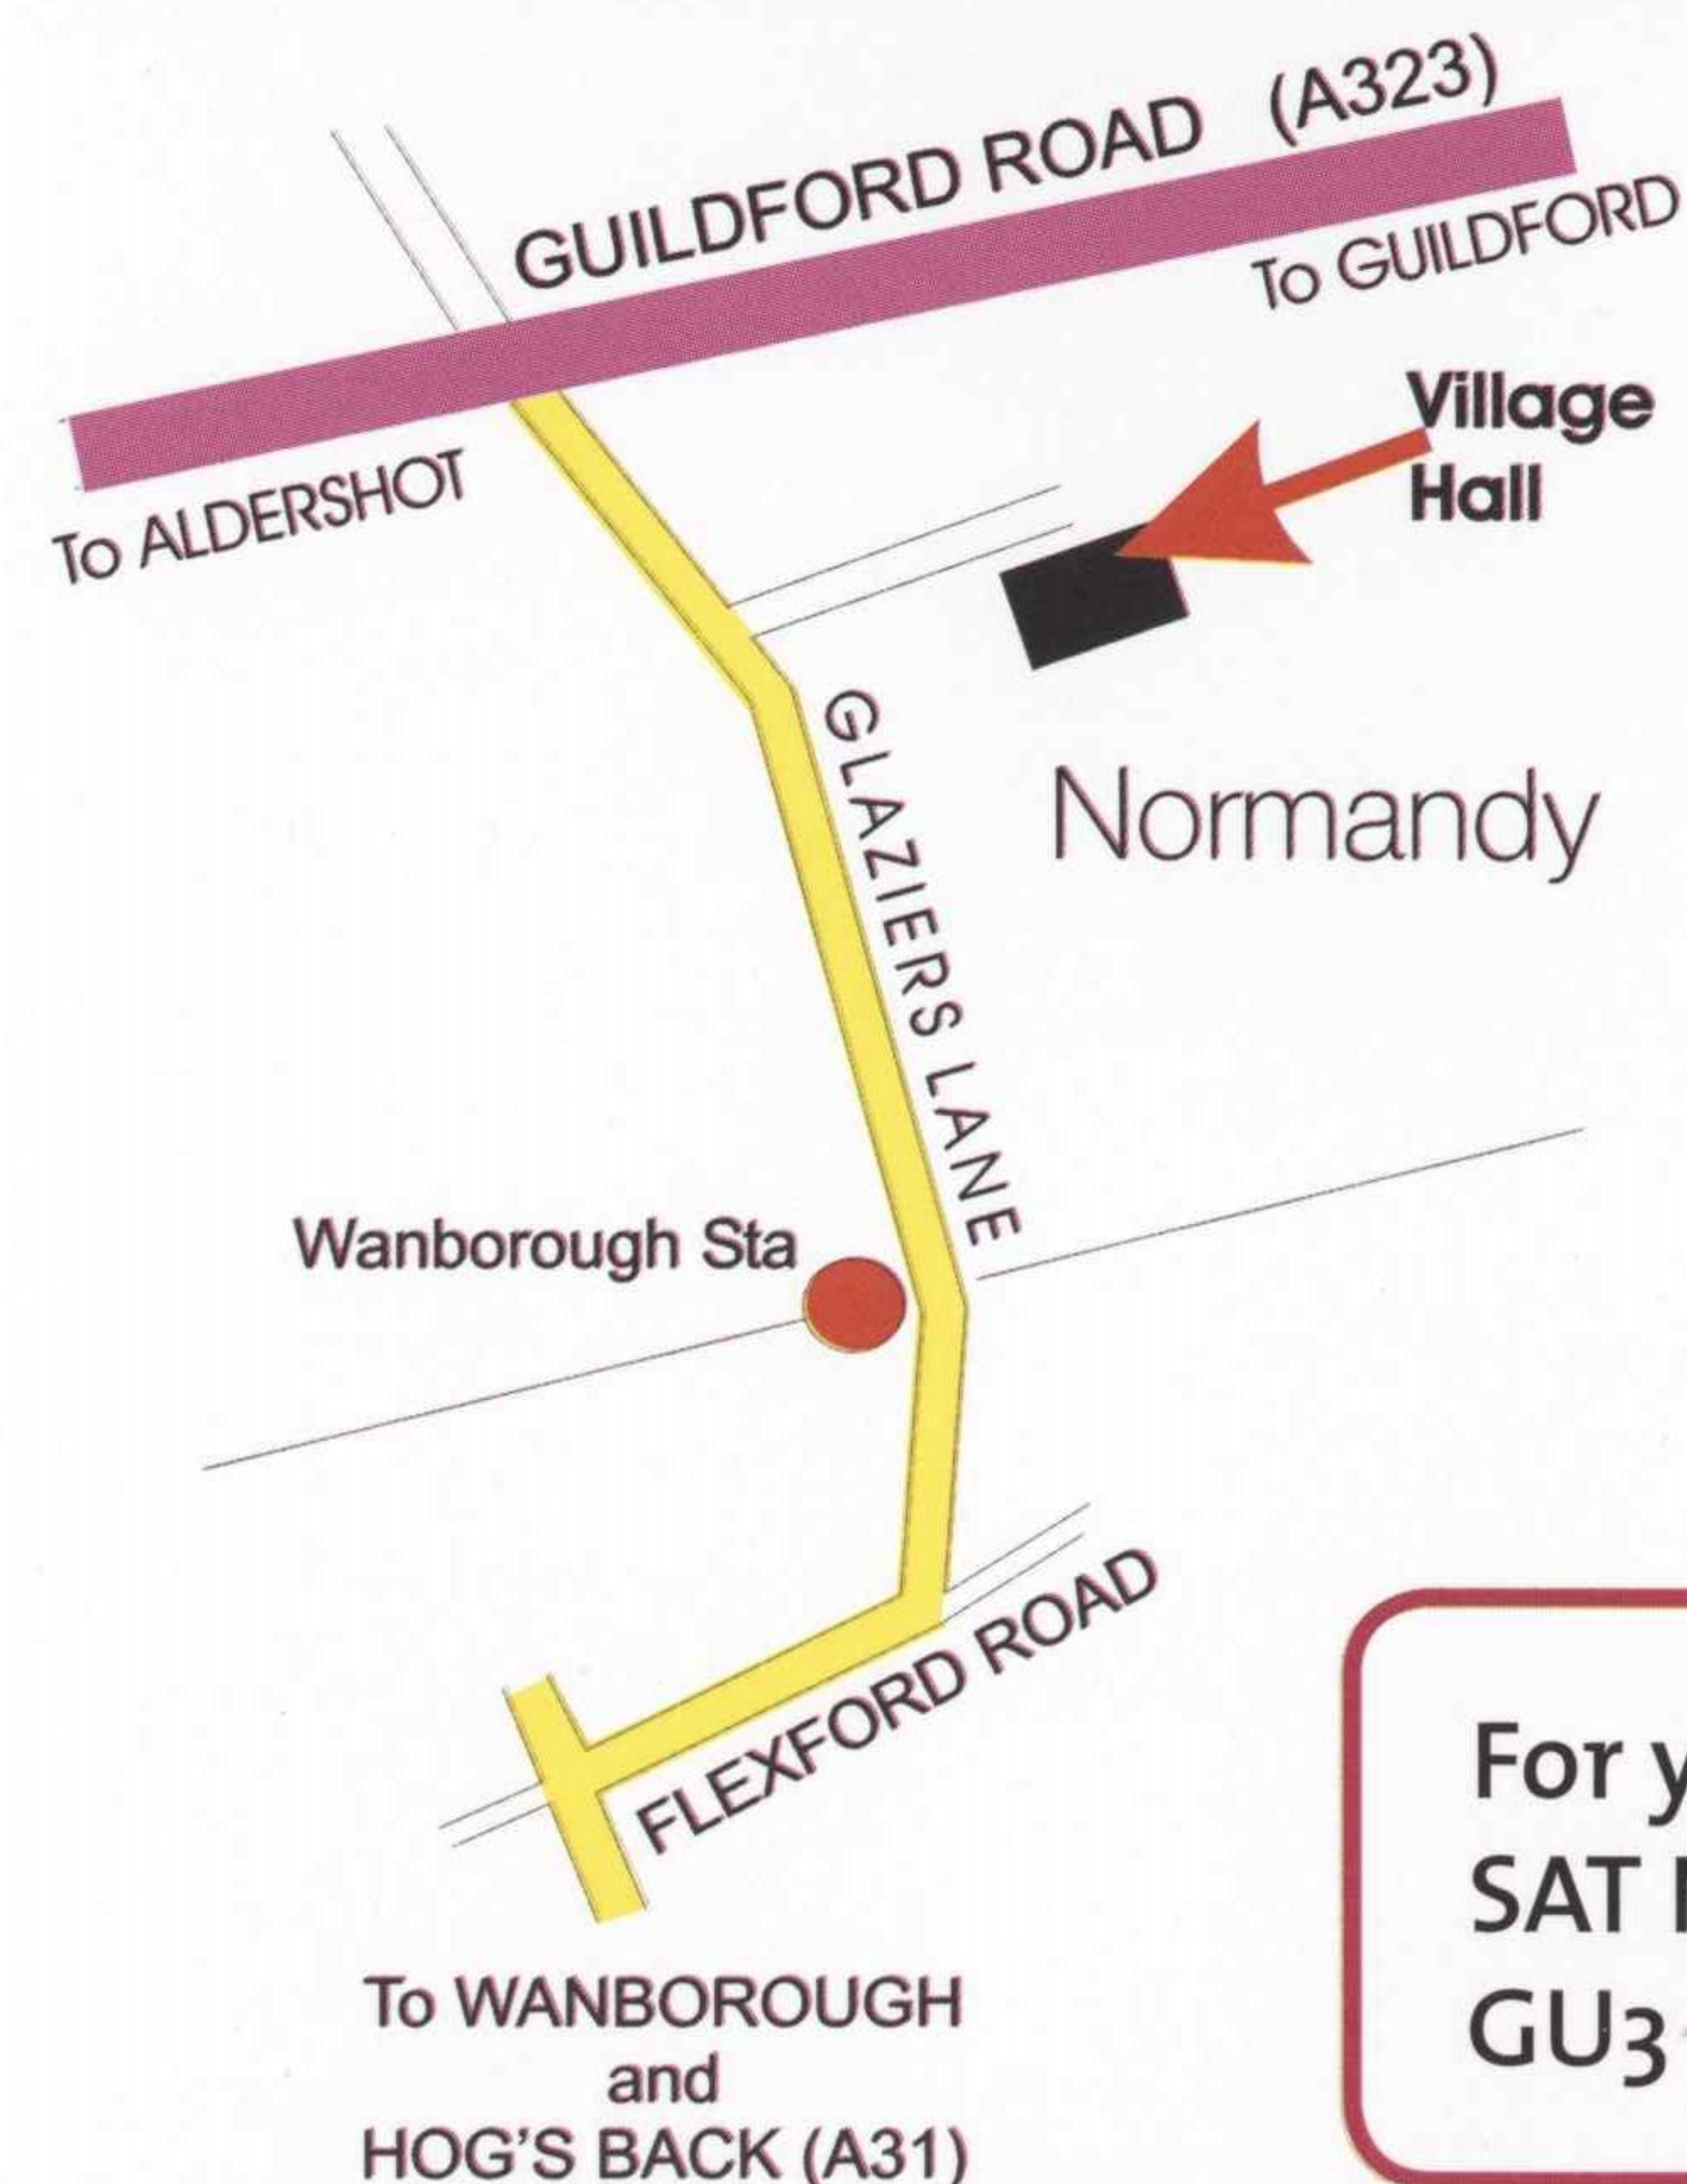

Join us for our fourth 'Come & Sing' on Saturday 22nd January 2011. Registration is from 10am and singing starts at 10.30am.

The undoubted masterpiece from Handel's Italian sojourn is Dixit Dominus. The music is full of youthful exuberance and daring, the like of which is to be found nowhere else in his whole output.

In complete contrast to this roller-coaster choral ride, we will also sing two Lenten motets (by Lotti and Gesualdo, the latter perhaps more famous for murdering his wife and her lover as they lay in bed) which are full of startling dissonances and intensity.

Requirements to join the day are a love of singing and choral music, and £20! What you will receive in return is the hire of the scores, tea and/or coffee, homemade soup and a ploughman's, the company of others who enjoy singing and a day of music led by our Music Director, Jeremy Backhouse.

* Last date for receipt of applications 11th January but please note, only a limited number of places are available. For application form see overleaf.

Vivace Chorus is promoting this concert to mark the centenary of Mahler's death. The performance of this immense work will be a highlight of the London concert season.

The sheer scale of this masterpiece means that it is rarely heard live, as it requires a huge symphony orchestra, eight soloists, two large choruses and a children's choir. DON'T MISS IT!

A pre-concert talk entitled 'The Universe bursts into song: Mahler and his Eighth Symphony', will be given by Mahler expert Dr Jeremy Barham from 6.00 to 6.45pm.
